The secrecy of the Mexican embassy gave rise to reports that the correspondence deals with the recent publicity activities of Manuel Tellez, the Mexican ambassador. Additional importance was attached to these reports by the return to Washington today of Ambassador Tellez from an interrupted trip to Mexico City. In some quarters, it is rumored that the ambassador's recall has been asked. Confirmation of these reports could not be obtained at the state department, but it is known that some of the statements given out by Ambassador Tellez by which he listed the number of American companies which have complied with the Mexican petroleum laws, have aroused criticism. The note to Mexico was sent by Sectary Kellogg last week coincident with the departure from Washington of Ambassador Tellez. At St. Louis the ambassador received a message from Mexico City and immediately commenced his return trip to Wash-ington. At the embassy today, it was admitted that he had returned but

Washingston, March 3.—(4)—Sudden departure of Ambassador Manuel
C. Tellez for Mexico City tonight led to rumors that his recall had been requested by the state department. The department refused to comment upon this report but it was learned from official sources that no such request had been submitted to Mexico City government.

The reason for the ambassador's departure understood to have been given to Washington officials, was because of the illness of his brother. Tellez recently left Washington for Mexico City on the same explanation but returned here without having actually left the country.

Alarm Clock Does Its Duty And Then It Is Up to You

The alarm clock's duty is to awaken one at a certain time; if it does that it has accomplished all it can, and if you turn it off and go back to sleep, that's your business.

These notices are in the nature of a bargain alarm to call your attention to the advertisements that appear in The Constitution. Every morning when The Constitution arrives at your home that "alarm" is sounding.

Of course you may ignore it if that suits you, but if you do it is your own loss. You'll miss the splendid bargains that are advertised, and later you'll hear of them from your friends-but it will then be too late.

Bargains are usually for one day only, and even if they do carry over until there is a close-out of a particular line, the late-comer does not have the choice of the stock.

call Reed, of Missouri, was shown to be holding his strength nearly 2 to 1. The vote to go into executive session was not necessarily a defeat for Reed, of Missouri. It merely broke the continuous debate and enabled senators to go behind closed doors to consider executive busiaess for the time being. Reed Wins Victories.

Senator Reed, of Missouri, won another parliamentary victory early tonight when he succeeded in having vice President Dawes rule out a motion pending since early afternoon to take up the second deficiency bill in place of the Reed resolution. This motion had been debated for several hours, with democrats and republicans pointing accusing fingers at each and complaining that the opposing side was obstructing senate business.

"Who killed Cock Robin?" shouted Moses, New Hampshire, republican, at the top of his voice during one of these riotous moments. Senators were in an irritable mood and all humorous remarks carried a sharp barb with them.

Republican leaders in the senate tonight turned on members of their own party who are conducting the fillbuster in the senate to prevent continued investigation of senatorial election corruption and fought to break, up the obstruction tactics.

GEORGE DEFENDS GEORGIA'S LAWS.

GEORGIA'S LAWS.

Washington, March 3.—(Special.)
Defense of Georgia's primary election system and Georgia laws relating to the qualification of voters was made late Wednesday night in the senate by Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, in reply to Senator David Reed, of Pennsylvania. The debate came during the filibuster against a resolution to continue the campaign slush-fund investigations for two years.

The Pennsylvanian, discussing atleged conditions in southern states, had reached Georgia when Senator
George interrupted to defend his state.
With Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, who seeks to reduce the south's representation because of its election laws, Senator David Reed, who opposes inquiry into slush funds in the election of Senator Vare, contended that if elections are to be investigated, a proper field of inquiry would be in the south, where few negroes vote, and where, in many counties, republicans do not poll a single vote.

Agreeing that Georgia is a "fair state," Reed declared he does not believe the record of votes cast there indicates much fairness to the colored population. He gave a record of republican votes cast in certain Georgia counties for president; the votes cited being very few. An interchange between the two senators followed in which the Georgian explained the primary system of his state. George declared many Georgia negroes vote and stated that there are many Georgia counties where the republican vote is in the majority.

Informing Reed that a candidate does not have to go through the democratic white primary in Georgia to stand in the general election. Senator George said:

stand in the general election. Senator George said:

"In my state any man may run in the general election and may run under exactly the same conditions as the nominee of a party. He may file and become a candidate in the general election as a matter of right. Ine primary has nothing to do with at. You do not have to go through the primary in order to be listed on the ballot in the election."

Senator George said further that in Georgia the republicans have resorted almost uniformly to the convention who is a qualified election on the same term with a party nominee.

While it has no power over the primary election, congress has power over members-elect to the senate, and could investigate alleged frauds not only in an election, but also in a primary which affects the senator-elect, many which affects the senator-elect, manager. "Would you throw Pennsylvania and Illinois to the wolves?" asked Reed, of Pennsylvania.

"I was merely accepting the suggestion of the senator that he courted full investigation. We cannot afford telt important measures fail through a quibble as to which committee is to conduct the investigation. The country is going to say that the senate is unable to function."

while the democrats have insisted or baving the primary in recent years. "The committee has agreed to permit the schools to operate under the rejected revised sheet until the committee from the board and the citizens committee can agree on a budget," Dr. Eubanks said Thursday, "We positively are not going to close schools for a whole month between September 1 and January 1. The budget never contemplated this, although we did intend to save salaries of teachers for a 30-day period.

"We have explained several times that the plan we had in mind was to open school about 12 days late in September, take a week for Thanksgiving and the regular two weeks period for Christmas. This would give us the 30 days we need and would deprive the students of only about eight actual school days. These could be made up next June and the 36 weeks' school year be maintained."

Reason for Delay.

Dr. Eubanks stated that the reason the conference committee from the board had not been already named, was that members of the board wished to have the benefit of the views of Superintendent Sutton, and of Assistant Superintendent Ritchie, presented by these school officials at the joint conference. Both Mr. Sutton and Mr. Ritchie are attending a convention of the National Educational association at Houston. Texas, and will not return to Atlanta before Sunday.

It is expected that Dr. Eubanks will name Mr. Sutton as a member of the committee of five. He said Thursday that the committee could not function until Mr. Sutton returned to the city, and that the citizens body had agreed to permit operation of the school system under the rejected budget until the conference had been held.

If the committee from the board is named Monday, it is expected that a joint session of this committee will be sought not later than Wednesday.

Members of the board contended that the citizens advisory committee will be sought not later than wednesday. Reason for Delay.

Members of the board contended that the citizens committee previously had ignored overtures from the board to a joint conference, but at the last meeting of the board, Harold Hirsch, chairman of the board, Harold Hirsch, chairman of the citizens body, asked that a board committee be named to discuss problems of the system with the advisory body in an effort to "imon out" differences of opinion between the board and his committee.

Fair street, S. E., Guy Wingard, her 19-year-old boy friend who admitted to police that he held the gun when it went off, Thursday held to his story that the discharge of the revolver was an accident.

The coroner's inquest will be held this afternoon at the parlors of T. C. Bazemore company, where the body of Miss Duncan awaits funeral arrangements. Wingard is held by police under a charge of murder, while detectives are conducting a thorough investigation into the circumstances surrounding Miss Duncan's death. The matter is expected to be laid before the grand jury today.

Intensely nervous when grilled by detectives, Wingard was calmer Thursday and modified somewhat the story he told police immediately following the tragedy. He stated that, believing the pistol entirely empty after taking the cartridges out, he had snarped the gun twice at the floor before the shooting occu. ed.

Save Taxpayers Money.

At the office of the Sam E. Finley company, 212 W. North avenue, Thursday afternoon, Mosher paid high tribute to the Atlanta inventor and paving expert and predicted that the Atlantan's device will have a world wide effect on road building and will save millions of dollars annually both in installation of pavement and maintenance.

"The Finley mixer means much to the layman as well as to the engi-neer," Mosher declared. LINDALE CITIZEN

Rome, Ga., March 3.- (Special.)-Hillyer Smith, 73, employee of the Massachusetts Cotton mill, at Lindale, was almost instantly killed this morning by an eastbound Central of Georgia freight train as he was going to work. He died on the way to a hospital.

The northbound Southern train was passing when the accident occurred, and it is thought Smith failed to see the oncoming Central train on account of noise made by the other train. The two tracks parallel each other and are only a short distance

It is said that the engineer of the Central train did not see the man and knew nothing of the accident until he stopped the train near the depot at Lindale to switch cars.

Stephens Suggested Long.

Also according to Dr. Jacobs, Mr. Stephens Suggested the name of Dr. Long for the Hall of Fame when he delivered the main address at the university commencement in 1879. He suggested James Oglethorpe, settler of the state, as the other Georgian to occupy the honored place, but the legislature at its next session named Dr. Long and Mr. Stephens himself.

The statue of Dr. Long was unveiled last year on March 30, the anniversary of his famous operation, but funds have never been available for the erection of Mr. Stephens' statue in the hall and Georgia's other place there is vacant, although plans are on foot to soon place the statue of Stephens there also.

Marriage as an institution has been of how to be a woman with all her about for a very long while and when one is asked to speculate on how long it will continue to remain about, or wil: be like in one hundred years, one must first of all stop and reflect on

I am of the belief that one hundred years from now marriage will be something of what marriage has

The aged chief justice, Roger B. Taney, then solemnly pronounced the oath of office to which President Lin-

But he greeted us cordially. Learning whence we came, he drew my father, who was six feet two in his stockings, to his side, reached his hand up to their heads, and, finding his own the highest, he laughingly said to Senator Johnson:

"You see, senator, Old Kaintuck

SLEUTH INDICTED

Canton, Ohio, March 3.—(P)—The Canton police department, long linked by rumor with the killing last July of Don R. Mellett, Canton editor, was drawn officially into the case today with the return of a murder indictment against Floyd Streitenberger, former city detective.

Streitenberger was arrested at Springfield, Ohio, and brought to Canton

After his arr. 5 Streitenberger declared he had expected it as a result of the alibi.

Thousands who have piles don't know that quick and permanent re-lief can be accomplished with internal medicine. Cutting or any amount of treatment with cintments and suposi-tories will not remove the cause. Bad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in many, many cases with a marvel-ous record of success, such a wonder-ful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid mony-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications, Get a package of HEM-ROID from Jacob's Drug stores today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you.—(adv.)

In addition to McDermott and Streitenberger, the other men indicted are Ben Rudner, who was committed to the penitentiary Monday to start a life sentence, and Louis Mazer, whose trial is set for March 16.

The part alleged to have been played by the former detective in the killing was not revealed in the i-dictment. The charge, however, recalled a story McDermott was reported to have told relatives at Nanty Glo, Pansoon after the killing in which he declared a member of the Canton police was one of the assassins. He later denied the story, but throughout the course of the investigation and trials there has been constant reference to alleged collusion between the killers and the police. Streitenberger came to the defense of Mazer, establishing an allib by declaring that Mazer was at the Streitenberger home on the night of the killing.

POULTRY CAR TO VISIT

Dawson, Ga., March 3.—(Special.)
A. E. Gibson, county agent, announces that the next poultry car will be in Parrott from 7:30 to 9.30 a. m. and in Dawson from 11 to 3 o'clock on Monday, March 7.

As this will give the farmers a few days' notice, a larger sale is expected than was held in February. The prices will be known by the last of the week, as all bids will have come in by that time, Gibson states.

Nearly 5,000 pounds of poultry were shipped at the last sale, bringing the sellers approximately $1,200.

Gulf Five Meets Central Y Quint

Gulf Refining company's quintet will play the Y. M. C. A. five Saturday on the local "Y" court. Both of these teams have players that are members of each team, but those that are employed at the Gulf will play with that quintet. An interesting battle is expected as all of these players have the same system of play using the short pass and working the ball down for close shots.

Tasker will be unable to play and Bunstead will be the forwards for the Gulf, while Wilkerson and Adamson will be with the Gulf. Brock and Bumstead will be the forwards for the Gulf, and Slim Adcock will oppose him. Willie O'Connor and Red Bynum are the stellar guards for the Gulf, and Cordele and Guthrie will perform for the "Y."

George J. Voight, Washington, D. C., medalist and outstanding favorite, turned in another sensational win by defeating Bert Edwards, New York. 7 and 6, the same score by which Voight defeated C. F. Cook, Jr., Boston, yesterday. Voight was seven up at the turn.

In a tussle between two New Yorkers, Harvey Shaffer nosed out R. W. Ryle, on the twentieth green, one up. Although slightly a favorite by his consistently good play here during the winter in previous tournaments, Shaffer was in difficulty on the first nine and was three down at the turn. He rallied and evened the match on the eighteenth, halved the next, and took the twentieth hole to win.

The Triple E. class downed the Druid Hills Presbyterians 22 to 16 Druid Hills Presbyterians 22 to 16 in what proved to be the feature game in the Sunday School Athletic association at the Atlanta Athletic club, Thursday night. It was a case of saving the best for the last for although most of the crowd had dispersed before the final game was over, it was the closest and hardest fought affair of the evening. In the curtain raiser, the St. Luke's Episcopais downed the Grace Methodists, 37 to 20, while Fortified Hills trimmed the Grant Park Baptists. 38 to 20 in the second. In the National league, the Covenant Presbyterians showed their best form of the season in downing the St. Paul Methodists, 29 to 16, while Central Presbyterians ran wild over Clifton, 44 to 14.

The Poets of Lanier High came through to the right to oppose Boys' High in the semi-finals tomorrow, with a victory over Gordon Institute. The Macon lads turned in the very one-sided score of 55-28, and the second-string outfit of the locals was used during the first half. The Poets led three points, 17-14, at half time.

The dope was safe again this afternoon in the second game of the day when University School for Boys defeated Georgia Military college of Milledgeville, by a score of 44 to 39.

It was a see-saw contest all the way, but the Cadets from Milledge-ville had a 20 to 15 lead at the end of the half.

In the second half the Atlanta team staged a great comeback, with McHenry, center, taking the lead. The visitors' center made a total of 15 points.

Pictures of Draak, which were shown by Contos Thursday reveal that young man as being a person amply capable of taking care of himself, even against such rugged and rough opposition as Daviscourt usually offers.

Draak, who has held the wrestling championship of Belgium against the attacks of the best mat men in that country tips the scales at 220 pounds and is said to be one of the most versatile grapplers in the business.

In viewing the announcement that Babe Ruth is now in a position to earn a larger annual salary than the president of the United States, we are tempted to turn to philosophy for a moment and wonder just where the justice of the thing lies.

We will answer our own question after a fashion. The majority of people in the United States are given to looking on the surface of things. They will pay for their momentary amusement and let the necessities of life accumulate on the debit side of the ledger. Babe Ruth's only mission in this life is to amuse the people who choose to pay their dollars at the curnstiles to see him play. The president of the United States (regardless of party or person) is safeguarding the very foundations of the nation.

What is the answer? Too much amusement? No. Too small what is the answer? Too much amusement? No. Too small the life is to group a system for the surface of the ledger. We have no bone to pick with the sports fans who choose to spend enough of their dollars to make the fabulous salary of the Bambino possible. That is their perfect right but it does seem shameful that the nation will support such a salary without a move to entice good men into the legislative bodies of the country by offering salaries commensurate

Back to Sports.

And now that we have that out of our system what are we going to do about it? Nothing, just as everyone else is doing. Now we will turn back to sports where we belong, if anywhere.

The Atlanta Athletic club basketball team will begin the shaping of a 1927-28 team within the month when they start spring training at the club on March 14, and continue through six weeks of grind under the tutelage of Coach Joe Bean.

Coach Bean declares that he will give the boys a good practice on three nights of every week during the period from the middle of March until May 1, and that he will welcome any amateur candidates who wish to practice with the squad during the aged Celt in Sharkey's corner as the referee finally stepped in and ended it.

McTigue, heralded by Announcer Joe Humphries as the "Irish Miracle Man," had shown a few of his ring tricks to the big crowd in the early rounds and had made the plunging Pole take backwater in not a few exchanges. He had early inflicted a cut on Jack's left eye and another on nislip and this made Sharkey look badfor a time, until his 19-pound pull in the weights and his greater youth by 13 years began to tell its tale.

In the eighth Sharkey cut McTigue's left eye and apparently then inflicted as first wound in the mouth which made Mike bleed slightly. From this stage on Sharkey, kept Mike on the run, but he could never be sure of victory as McTigue would deliberately take punishment in order to snap his right into any opening which might thus be presented. It was a remarkably clean fight, probably not more than a half dozen blows were struck below the neck. Sharkey's most effective punch seemed to be a right just back of the left ear which he worked continually when in close.

Tampa, Fla., March 3.—(United News.)—One of Florida's race track problems was solved today when two circuit court judges held that "under the conditions shown in the bill" a court of equity has no jurisdiction to enjoint a race track, and denied the injunction.

The decree will be signed Saturday. The injunction was sought by H. Mundy against the Miami Jockey club to prohibit racing at the Hialeah track. Circuit Judges H. F. Atkinson and W. L. Freeland heard the injunction would be to go beyond their authority.

One more racing problem remains before the Florida courts. The Pompano club was enjoined in a Broward county circuit court.

The Pompano club will reopen for a 25-day meet on March 7, however, having secured a writ of supersedeas until the injunction suit is heard.

Somewhere, sometime, some wise cracker observed that "a new Coach Mundorff, in his role of basketball coach of Georgia Tech, is certainly sweeping the boards clean.

Due to the utimely demise of the Yellow Jackets in Atlanta's own little eliminations that crowned Vanderbilt conference champion, the Tech boys have been passed up rather snobbishly in the post tournament comment. Gliead's choicest balm would have been as mustard plaster alongside a title for the Tech cagemen. But there can be no gainsaying that Mundorff swept the conference walks scrupulously clean with his basketball broom prior to the tournament. And it seemed that he should have walked through the tournament unwinded, but he didn't.

All this gets to the point. Roy Mundorff is going to turn out a champion in 1928. With Player, George advocate of the system, which has been used by victorious Tiger teams for the last two seasons.

The two-seconds hesitation on shifts, the effectiveness of which is considered to have been improved by use the huddle, is expected to be written into the rule despite the strenuous objection of Knute Rockne and other coaches and officials. The famous Notre Dame coach has contended that capable officials can regulate the play without stop watches, but eastern referees and umpires have put in a strong recommendation for a definite "hesitation" ruling.

The point after touchdown is expected to draw less attention than heretofore, members of the committee claiming that the play generally has been approved throughout the country. The old question of a revision in the scoring system will be considered, however.

Recommendations have been received by the committee asking that lower point value be placed on touchdowns resulting from fumbles than on those made by sustained rushing and passing. Members of the committee doubt, however, that steps for a change will be taken.

There was a Henry Horner! Henry the faithful, the devoted, the loyal and kind, thought Cornelia. And then, out of spaced this flat, chill voice. Lyman is a temper, having actually, in passing behind her as he entered, looked over her shoulder and read Henry's signature.

"I don't know how it strikes you, Miss Marsh, when you take an extra half hour for lunch and then start reading letters as long as serials. To the person that's paying for your time you don't seem to be giving exactly a fair deal to Hertzog's."

The criticism was just, and when Lyman handed Cornelia a 400 page volume with the dignified restraint of ordering merely. "Drop any book you've got started and report on this, she settled down to it conscientiously. But it was an historical novel of which the whole 400 pages were compact with plot, so that the race is "skipping" which always rides a scenario department to death was maddeningly handicapped by the necessity for paying attention to details. It was nearly five when Cornelia, racked of nerve and strained of eye, made her last note; by the time she had assembled these notes into the typewritten synopsis and "opinion," which, to gether, formed a reader's report, it was 20 minutes past.

So near to closing time, the usual procedure was to fill in with a couple of magazine short stories rather than to start another full-sized novel till next day. But as Cornelia rose to turn in her report to Miss Jacobs, Miss Jacobs herself entered the scenario department with a script in her working. BAGGAGE TRANSFER Commerce building. RIGHTS ARE EQUAL, DECISION HOLDS the Ansley hotel.

All public taxicab and transfer companies have a right to transfer baggage from the Atlanta Terminal station on duplicate claim checks which the terminal must honor without any discrimination in favor of any particular transfer company, according to a decision handed down Thursday by the supreme court. Companies that give bond for possible damages against the terminal company have equal rights in handling such baggage, it was held.

The decision of the supreme court affirmed a decision of the Fulton superior court and upheld an order issued by the state public service company to cease discrimination in favor of any particular company.

The case was that of the Yellow Cab company against the Atlanta

Cab company against the Atlanta Baggage and Cab company. Prior to the order of the commission the privi-lege of transferring baggage on duplicate claim checks was granted only to the Atlanta Baggage and Cab com-pany and the Black and White Taxi-cab company.

ATLANTA GIRL WINS LAURELS AS AUTHOR

"A dillion for Love," by Peggy Gaddis, 156 Brantley street, N. E., a dramatic serial novel of two girls and their love affairs is one of the fea-tures of the current issue of Love Romancs. According to Betry Ben-nett, editor of Love Romances, Miss Gaddis is rapidly winning an enviable place for herself in contemporary fic-tion. Her name is not only seen as the author of novels and many short stories, but is becoming familiar to motion pictures lovers. Many will probably remember her as the author of the picture "Her Big Night."

Grim Pyorrhea gets 4 out of 5

All around you are people doomed, through carelessness, to contract Pyorrhea. Four persons out of five past forty(and many younger) are its victims.

Carelessness-neglect of teeth and gumsis the cause. And the results, too often, are loss of teeth, neuritis, rheumatism, or other serious diseases.

And yet, if you start in time, it is so easy to prevent. See your dentist twice a year. And start using Forhan's Used regularly and in time, Forhan's prevents Pyorrhea or checks it. It firms the gums and keeps them healthy. It protects teeth and keeps them white.

Ask your dentist about Forhan's, the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. It contains Forhan's Pyorrhea Liquid,

New York, March 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The stock market gave an impressive demonstration of its recuperative power today by rallying sharply under the leadership of the high-priced industrials. Speculators for the advance, apparently convinced that the market's weakened technical position had been sufficiently corrected for the time being by yesterday's sharp reaction, started to bid up stock from the opening, overcoming Adding Machine, Case Threshing Machine.

The recovery in prices was all the more impressive because of the collapse of cities service common on the curb, which was attributed, at first, to the illness of the president of the company, and later to the expiration of the marketing syndicate. A few weak spotss also developed on the "Big Board," notably Stromberg Carburetor, which slumped to another new French francs above 3.90 cents.

Non-ferrous metal shares gave one of the best demonstrations of groupstrength. Buying of these issues was stimulated by the reported reduction in copper output, the advance in lead prices and the raising of the annual dividend from 60 to 80 cents on Park Utah common which touched a new high level for the year. American Smeltin" crossed 153 to within an eighth of the year's high for an overnight gain of more than 3 points, Green Canada was run up over 4 points to a new peak at 391-8 and National Lead jumped over 5 points to a new maximum at 1861-4.

technical position had been sufficiently corrected for the time being by yesterday's sharp reaction, started to bid up stock from the opening, overcoming rather strenuous opposition in the middie of the session. Trading showed a marked contraction in volume, compared with most recent sessions.

Call money held steady at 4 per cent, despite the calling of about $15,100,000 in loans. In fact, funds were reported available in the "outside market" as low as 33-4. The Bank of England made no change in its 5 per cent rediscount rate, and the New York Federal Reserve bank also announced a continuance of the 4 per cent rate, private Washington advices indicating that no immediate change was looked for by treasury officials. Further heavy shipments of gold were reported from Canada.

The recovery in prices was all the more impressive because of the collapse of cities service common on the Tree of the first of the firs

In the goods market sales of standard cotton textiles during January reached a record volume, according to the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants of New York, 69.8 per cent in excess of production. Stocks were reduced 10 per cent to a point 18.5 per cent below those at the end of January, 1926, while unfilled orders increased 43.7 per cent and at the end of the month were 41.4 per cent above those of a year previous. While business during February was admittedly less active that in January, this was partly due to seasonal causes, as the month is expected to class with the best February in the history of the business.

So rapidly has the industry been going ahead that some voices are being raised in warning against overproduction. Commenting on the various troubles of the industry, David Clark, editor of The Southern Textile Bulletin, points out that—

New York, March 3 .- (By the Associated Press.)-Activity in the bond market today was confined to a small number of issues, most of them directly affected by current news. Sales totaled little more than $10.000,000 as traders apparently were inclined to await further readjustments before adding to their bond commitments. Further shipments of gold from Canada, enhancing the ease in the money situation, exerted a sustaining influ-ence, however, and despite the apathy. prices maintained a firm undertone. A break of more than 2 points in Cities Service Power and Light 6s, in sympathy with the rapid slump of the stock on the curb market on exaggerated reports of the illness of Henry L. Doherty featured the day's trading. Otherwise, utilities issues were generally firm.

Presumably influenced by the action of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh directors in refusing to extend the Del-aware & Hudson's option to release the road, the convertible 5s of the lat-ter company declined almost a point. Eric convertible 4s "D" were again in demand at slightly improved prices.

A gain of more than a point in Peru Ss, touching their high record price, featured the foreign group. German General Electric 6 1-2s, with war-rants, also received good support, while other German bonds and the while other German bonds and the French issues were firm, but inactive. Aside from considerable buying of the Second Liberty 41-2s there was little activity in the federal government division. Prices were steady. Prompt sale was reported of the 85, 200,000 United Post Office corporation first mortgage 5 1-2s per cent sinking fund gold bonds.

WHEAT PRICES SUSTAIN SETBACK

Chicago, March 3.—(P)—Confronted by big Argentine shipments and by fine weather for the domestic crop, wheat today tended to sag. Closing quotations on wheat were easy, 1-8c to 3-8c net lower, corn 3-8c to 5-8c down, oats 1-8c to 1-2c off, and provisions uncharged to a setback of ic.

Unexpec ed declines in Liverpool prices tod y gave special emphasis to news that nearly 6,000,000 bushels of wheat had cleared from Argentina this week despite port strikes and two holidays. This showing was the more impressive because Argentine clearances for the corresponding time last year amount to only 3,034,000 bushels. Bear sentiment was further encouraged by assertions in some quarters that world supply and demand have about reached a balance, and that the new crop outlook, at present favorable, is the controlling factor.

Excellent support for wheat, however, made itself felt each time that May reached $1.40. In this connection, signs pointed to good acceptances of offerings to Europe, and it was stated that Italy had bought at $1.75 notwithstanding that Liverpool quoted future deliveries at $1.50. Predictions were also current that a falling off was at hand in domestic primary arrivals, although authorities differed as to likelihood of continuance of the arrivals, although authorities differed as to likelihood of continuance of the crop movement southwest. Reports from Winnipeg said all-rail business in wheat from there is about the heaviest on record.

Corn and oats were affected by continued weakness of the cash corn market.

tinued weakness of the cash corn mar-Shipping demand here for corn to improve, and country offerings were larger.
Provisions reflected weakness of he : values.

FAILURES INCREASE DURING FEBRUARY

New York, March 3.—Failures were on an ascending scale in February, according to Bradstreet's, even though the number of failures was, naturally enough, smaller than in January. Thus, there were 1,859 failures in February, an increase of 11.3 per cent over February a year ago, whereas the 2,227 failures of January this year showed an increase of 6.9 per cent over January a year ago. For the two months of January and February this year, failures numbered 4,086, an increase of 8.9 per cent over the 3,752 failures recorded in the like period of 1926. Liabilities for February totaled 865,415,550, an increase of 59.6 per cent over February a year ago, as against $75.061,255 in January, which increased 43.5 per cent over the like month of 1926. For the two month of January and February this year, liabilities totaled $140,476,805, which marked an increase of 55.4 per cent liabilities totaled $140.476.805, which marked an increase of 55.4 per cent over the like two months of 1926.

Fallures in February exceeded those in February a year ago in New England, the central west, the northwest and the south, while less than a year ago in the middle Atlantic and farwestern states. Liabilities exceeded a year ago in all groups. In New York city, however, both failures and liabilities were below a year ago in February.

Athens. Ga., March 3.—(Special.)
Work on the new journalism-commerce building, located just south of Den mark hall, on the University of Georgia campus, is going forward and with day and night shifts on the job, will in all probability be completed on scheduled time, July 31.

The building will be creeted at a cost of about $225,000 and will house he Henry W. Grady school of jour The plans.

The plans were drawn by Hentz,
Adler & Reid, of Atlanta, and the construction work is being done by the C. H. Van Ormer company, of Atlanta.

Firthish steamer King David, grounded 5:00 pm.

Groupe Henry, Va. last night, was floated by coast guard boats that went to her assistance, according to mestakes picked up here by the Tropical Radio Telegraph company.

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

THE SARACENS HAD ANOTHER GREAT ADVANTAGE OVER THE CRUSADERS. THEY HAD A SINGLE OBJECT, WHICH WAS TO FREE THEIR HOMELAND FROM THESE INVADERS A VICTORY ON THE PART OF ANY OF THEIR FORCES WAS A VICTORY FOR ALL, WHILE THE GENERAL AIM OF EACH GROUP OF CRUSADERS WAS TO WIN PERSONAL GLORY. THIS PRO-DUCED JEALOUSY AND DISCORD IN THE CAMPS OF THE CRU-

FOR TWO YEARS BEFORE THE ARRIVAL OF RICHARD THE SIEGE OF ACRE HAD BEEN IN PROGRESS. MILITARY OR-GANIZATIONS OF THOSE DAYS WERE FAR LESS SYSTEM-ATIC THAN THEY ARE NOW AND IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO KNOW WHAT THE ACTUAL LOSS OF LIFE HAD BEEN FROM THE TER-RIRI F RATTI FS AND FROM THE PLAGUE WHICH SWEPT THE CAMP. HISTORIANS CALCULATE THAT MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN HAD DIED THERE AND POSSIBLY

King Richard I.

OF LIFE AT ACRE, TO SAY ON BEHALF OF THE LEADERS THAT THEY FULLY SHARED THE DANGERS TO WHICH THEY EXPOSED THEIR COMMON SOLDIERS. WITH THEM IT WAS A POINT OF HONOR TO BE IN THE FOREMOST RANK IN COM-BAT, AND THEY SHIRKED NONE OF THE HARDSHIPS. WHILE A KNIGHT WAS BETTER PROTECTED IN HIS ARMOR THAN AN ORDINARY SOLDIER, THIS WAS ALSO A LIABILITY, BECAUSE OF ITS TREMENDOUS WEIGHT. THE RECORDS SHOW THAT THE LOSSES IN BATTLE OF KNIGHTS OF ALL RANKS WAS IN THE SAME PROPORTION AS COMMON SOLDIERS. WE KNOW THEIR NUMBER BECAUSE THEIR NAMES WERE RECORDED.
